STATEMENT FROM SBV SERVICES (Pty) Limited – MPUMALANGA, KANYAMAZANE MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT

13 June 2014

SBV Services Support Office 13 June 2014 - SBV Services (SBV) can confirm that a number of vehicles from the Nelspruit Centre were inspected by the Mpumalanga traffic authorities on the 12th of June; following the accident that occurred on the Kanyamazane Road on the 11th of June. SBV supports the National campaign to ensure that vehicles are safe and roadworthy and are cooperating with the relevant authorities. Even though some of our vehicles were found to be un-roadworthy, all the faults have been identified and addressed. Contingency measures have been taken to ensure that services to our customers in the area resume as soon as possible.

At this point in time a thorough investigation into the causes of the accident is underway. No information can be disclosed until the results of the investigation have been concluded. Any incident impacting the public and our employees is taken in a serious light by SBV Services. On receiving the findings of the investigation appropriate actions will be taken if deemed necessary.

Once again we wish to express our deepest sympathies to the families of those who have passed away and wish the injured persons a speedy recovery.

END
